

CHRISTMAS CELEBRATION

“Hope of a better tomorrow, a brand new beginning in life today, a clean break from the failure of the past is what Christmas is all about.

So to boost up the spirit of this festival, Daisy Dales International School had a rocking celebration.

The school was adorned with bells, stars, wreaths tec. The entrance was decorated with a huge Christmas tree.

Tiny tots were dressed in vibrant attires. To mark the celebration special assembly was conducted in the school.

The most exciting moment for the students was the arrival of the Santa clause who distributed sweets and gifts among the children. Christmas parties were also organized in different classes which the children enjoyed
