

DAISY DALES INTERNATIONAL–THE COSMIC SCHOOL

GANDHI JAYANTI

Gandhi Jayanti is celebrated in India yearly on 2nd October to mark the occasion of the birthday of Mohandas Karamchand Gandhi. He is also known as “The Father Of The Nation” for his selfless devotion towards the people of Nation. Gandhi Jayanti is marked by prayers and commemorative ceremonies in different schools, colleges ,local government institutions, socio-political institution – and Daisy Dales International School was no exception. Students enthusiastically took part in different activities. Assembly began with the rendition of Bapu’s most preferred devotional song “Raghupati Raghav Raja Ram -----“

A Quiz Contest was also organized that encompassed information about Gandhiji. This not only helped the students know more about Gandhiji but they were also given a taste of cooperation and a sense of involvement.

Not only this, the children were shown Gandhiji’s photographs, his spectacles, his walking stick and the Charkha. Gandhiji who is a personification of Truth and Non-Violence, reiterated his teachings through the three monkeys that emphasized on “See no Evil ,Hear no Evil ,Speak no Evil.” Worksheets were prepared on the three mascots as a class activity.

